JANUARY 2025 — LETTER FROM PASTOR DAVE

Hello Friends,

Happy New Year! The start of a new year symbolizes a fresh start. 2025 will be a year of change for my wife and me as I retire from full-time ministry and graduate from the Doctor of Ministry program at the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary. This will represent a new start in our lives; we both are excited and nervous about what lies ahead. New starts in life are like that and are inherently about change. We may or may not be happy about the change, but nonetheless, life constantly changes. Occasionally, we have events that mark a significant change in our lives, and for which we have time to prepare, like retirement. However, change happens around us all the time, and the gradual nature of such change can catch us off guard, causing us to feel disorientated. Parents frequently experience this sudden realization that something has fundamentally changed when they sit in a high school gym as their child graduates, ready to move on into adulthood. At such times, we think to ourselves, wasn't it just yesterday that they were playing with their friends in the yard, and wasn't it just the day before that they took their first steps? I sometimes feel that same way again when I hit another birthday, wondering where all the years have gone and thinking about the many life changes over the previous year. Change is ongoing, and if we aren't paying attention to it, it can leave us feeling as if we have missed out on something that will never come around again. I like the idea behind what people call "mindfulness." it just means paying attention to how we feel at any given moment and being mindful of what is happening in our lives. Over thirty-five years as a seminary professor and an ordained elder, a friend of mine developed the practice he calls "redeeming the routines." It is an intentional act of taking time each week to pause and consider how one is doing spiritually, physically, and mentally. Weekly, this may be an hour or two; monthly, perhaps half a day; yearly, it may be several days away from the busyness of life to reflect on how our life is going. It is a kind of intentional mindfulness that will help us to pay attention to what is happening in our lives, how healthy our relationships are, how healthy mentally and physically we are, and where we are in our walk of faith. In a way, it is like making a fresh start each time it is practiced. Let me suggest that this New Year's Day, you give yourself time to "redeem the routines" of your life. It is a great deal more than making resolutions for the new year; it is the act of taking stock of how things are and then considering, if needed, how we can redirect our lives in such a way that allows us to flourish even if it seems as if everything is changing and not altogether to our liking. It brings us to the mindfulness of this moment of our life and allows us to consider what is good and, if needed, grieve what is no more. It makes us keenly aware of how meaningful our relationships are, particularly our relationship with God. Regardless of age, such renewal and a fresh start are right there if you open yourself to the experience. Yes, change can be difficult and sometimes painful, but it can lead you to just what is needed to experience renewal. Embrace change and take charge of it. Please don't wait until you are driven by it to a place you don't want to go. May God grant you and your family a blessed new year, and may you find renewal and a fresh start in it.

Thank you From Jackie and I for all the cards and gifts this Christmas.

New Year Blessings, Pastor Dave

Please Join Us!

DEBORAH CIRCLE: Deborah Circle will be meeting on Tuesday, January 14th at 9:00 am in the Lounge. The book to be discussed at our meeting will be Eleanor, a Spiritual Biography of the 20th Century's Most Influential Woman by Harold Ivan Smith.

Mrs. Roosevelt was an amazing, inspiring and great woman who was a former First Lady. She was an unsung hero who was a tireless social activist. This well-documented book explains how her biblically based faith and morality were the basis for her convictions and actions. Reading this book will cause you to greatly admire and love the person Eleanor Roosevelt was!!!! We hope you will borrow a copy of the book from the shelf by our secretary's office and come to join us in the discussion. If you aren't able to read it before the meeting, feel free to come for the discussion and you will want to read it later!!! This was a truly remarkable First Lady! Sarah Circle has invited our members to join them on Thursday, January 9th, to learn more about The Ecumenical Partnership for Housing which is a new, very important group being formed in Sturgeon Bay to help those with housing insufficiency. Ann Quale will lead the discussion and explain what this group is hoping to do. Please try to attend if at all possible. Julie Taylor, Chairman of Deborah Circle 920-743-5619

SARAH CIRCLE- Sarah Circle is known as the Social Circle with a Mission and each month we try to have a different program or activity. Sarah Circle will be meeting on Thursday, January 9, 2025 at 1:00 p.m. in the FELLOWSHIP HALL. There will be a special program presented by Ann Quale on the "Ecumenical Partnership of Housing" which addresses HOMELESS IN THE COUNTY. Deborah Circle will be joining us and ALL members of the congregation are invited; refreshment will be served. We welcome new members and invite you to join this group of ladies. For more information please contact Karen Lenius 743-4792 or mklenius@att.net

Please join our United Women in Faith on Thursday, January 9, 2025 @ 1:00 in Fellowship Hall (Sarah Circle is inviting the Deborah Circle members and anyone from the congregation) to join us for an informative presentation by Ann Quale of The Ecumenical Partnership for Housing. "Homelessness is a hidden and expanding problem in Door County. The Ecumenical Partnership for Housing - Sturgeon Bay (EPH-SB) is a growing group of local churches working together to address homelessness in the county. An unhoused family will live in the home while they work with social workers from Door County Health and Human Services to learn the skills necessary to be successful tenants or homeowners. Partner churches provide a board member, allow EPH-SB to do an annual fundraising appeal to church members, and stock consumables such as groceries and cleaning supplies between families. Additionally, the EPH-SB hopes that congregants with skills in the trades might help with projects as needs arise. The first home, owned by the Door County Medical Center and most recently a clinic, is being remodeled by Habitat for Humanity this winter." Ann Quale, respectively.

*When You Look For A Snowman
 Submitted by Sheryl Kobishop*

When you look at a snowman
 It's three snowballs round
 He is reminding you
 That in God, Three in One is found
 The bottom reminds us of
 God the Father
 He's our strong rock and foundation
 Creator of all living things
 People, tribes and nations
 The middle shows us God the Son
 With His arms spread open wide
 Who died on the cross for each of us
 Our sins Jesus' blood did hide
 The head reminds of
 God the Holy Spirit
 Who is our counselor and friend
 He speaks to our hearts and minds
 Transforming us into the likeness of Him
 So in the mist of wintertime fun a snowman you do see
 It a loving reminder of the Blessed Trinity

JANUARY 2025 MISSION: The Clean Start Program is a grass roots program designed to help those who need it, look good and feel good. Having the ability to do laundry in the comforts of our own homes is a luxury not afforded to everyone in our community. Those who need to do laundry and head to the nearest laundromat are often met with broken machines, unsanitary conditions or not enough quarters. The Clean Start Program started to assist those in need, offering them three hours every month to come to a state-of-the-art laundromat and do up to 7 loads of laundry and dry that laundry, absolutely free, with no questions asked. We also have a licensed stylist in house that will cut your hair for free while your laundry spins around and around. Since May of 2024, the numbers of people taking advantage of this opportunity has grown exponentially, with many nights extending well past the 9:00 pm cut off time. We have plenty of laundry soap and dryer sheets, so we are asking for monetary donations to help us keep things spinning along. Clean Start Laundry days are every second Monday of the month from 6 pm-9 pm at the new DC Laundromat on Madison Av-

Isaiah: 41:10 So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. 13 For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you.

THE BENEFITS OF GRATITUDE:

One of the best resources for all things..... Gratitude is Berkeley's Greater Good website. A major contributor to their catalog of articles, videos and essays is Robert A. Emmons, Ph.D., a leading scientific expert on gratitude (cool, Robert.) Gratitude is an affirmation of goodness.

Robert A. Emmons, Ph.D.

According to this list, pulled from Emmons' research, gratitude is the silver bullet we are all looking for. A regular gratitude practice:

- Brings us happiness and increases life satisfaction
- Boosts feelings of optimism, joy, pleasure, and enthusiasm
- Reduces anxiety and depression
- Strengthens immune system, lowers blood pressure, reduces illness
- Increases sleep quality
- Builds resilience
- Strengthens relationships and connection
- Promotes forgiveness
- Leads to generosity
- Increases generosity and resiliency in kids

This is a good idea as we enter into 2025!!!

Can 2025 Be a Year of Grace?

"My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."—

2 Corinthians 12:9

When I was a teenager, a United Methodist pastor explained grace to me. It changed my life. That same grace continues to change my life. How has grace shaped your life? How do you continue to struggle with grace?

Grace is the unmerited, upbuilding, unconditional love God extends to all people and to the whole creation. United Methodists have an expansive view of grace. We know that grace is always among us, working in love.

United Methodists are a Baskin-Robbins of grace. We proclaim the grace that God gives us before we even know we need it or know how to ask; this is prevenient grace. We proclaim the grace of God for us and for our healing with God; this is justifying grace. The upbuilding grace that attends to growth in love within us is sanctifying grace. Ephesians 2:8 says, "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God." Our whole lives are a response to grace. I write today to invite you to observe 2025 as a year of grace.

It is a basic truth of ministry that what you pay attention to grows. If we pay attention to mission, mission grows. Attend to Christian formation and knowledge grows. How might we be changed if we focused our lives more and more on grace? What if we used grace sightings in our devotionals and sermons? Or how might we be renewed if we sing about grace?

What if we practiced a grace that allows us to demonstrate our unity in Christ as a faith community? Currently, we live in a moment when powerful moneyed forces have divided this country. I believe this is an opportunity to make grace greater than our differences. I would want us to be clear that we are not proferring cheap grace for bullying, manipulation, or accommodating bad behavior that is harmful or abusive. Grace and repentance are sisters and should travel together, for grace without authentic repentance is abuse.

What if our personal anti-racism work featured grace-grounded reflection and honest conversations about blind spots and grace for others, and grace for deeper conversations and then action? What if grace called us all to grow in cultural competency so that we might grow in faith together?

What would happen to us if we framed mission by showing grace in our communities and world? Instead of focusing only on business at our council meetings, we might ask, where did we see grace today? How might we practice grace and extend grace to more and more in our community? Or where is grace leading our congregation now?

I will be keeping a grace journal just to see what God will do.

For the days ahead, I will remind us that grace is also for the stranger and sojourner in our land. Leviticus 19:33-34 reminds us, "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God."

Next year we will enjoy a year of experimentation for mission as we try new forms of ministry for impact. Some 54% percent of Northern Illinois United Methodist congregations and 60% of Wisconsin United Methodist churches have a weekly worship attendance of 35 people or fewer. Next year we will need grace for experimentation as churches yield to God's call forward in new ways.

Every day the ministry holds risk and learning from experiments. We will need to experiment with new forms of ministry and offer support to local churches for their ministry as they try to respond to their post-COVID context. We need to turn our systems toward learning and sharing so that we can support local church vitality as fully as possible. What will be the impact of having two conferences—the whole episcopal area—attend to a focus on grace? Our annual conferences will celebrate the theme "Grace is Sufficient" and continue it through the end of 2025.

My life was changed by grace and it continues to be changed. I believe people are looking for grace and bearers of a God working in love. I pray that a year of grace will deepen and strengthen us. Let's try it!

Know that I am praying for you. Thank you, Peace, Dan Schwerin, Bishop
